CHURCH NOTES.

We are still thinking of the glorious

Ascension of Our Lord, remembering how the Apostles stood "looking up" into heaven after He was separated from them. The Collect asks God to send us the Holy Ghost, that we too may be exalted to the place where Jesus has gone. Remembering that He is preparing a place for us, hardly daring to picture the joy that is coming to each one of us when we shall gaze and gaze on His Face;

we, like the Apostles, will often want to stand still for a few moments, in the rush and hurry of life, and look up into Heaven. When Jesus was on earth, He took bread and looked up into Heaven, and still to-day His Priest breaks the Bread and the parts of Heaven are opened for us. Only for a little time, but the memory will refresh us, and we shall hear the voice of Angels bidding us remember that the same Jesus, the One we know at the Communion with nail prints in His hands, and a spear mark in His side, will come again in like manner, and claim us for His own, inheritors of the Kingdom of Heaven.

It is a comforting Epistle; often we find so many faults and omissions in our lives which in spite of our efforts, overcome us, that we give way to depression and despair; then we must remember these words of the Epistle: "Love shall cover a multitude of sins;" not just one or two sins, but a multitude. It is easy to love, we have only to remember the sorrows and troubles of people round us and love wells up in our hearts. If we look for it, we find something lovable in every man, and when we love, we want to give—hospitality, as St.

Peter calls it; sharing our happiness.

By sobriety, by prayer, remembering the brevity of life, stimulating our love for God so that we shall speak through Him, minister to others as

His vessels through which He pours

His grace, longing that by our actions, by our lives, He may be glorified.

"I live for those who love me"

For those who know me true.

For the heaven that smiles above me

And waits my coming too;

For the cause that needs assistance,

For the wrong that needs resistance

For the future in the distance,

For the good that I may do."

To-morrow's Gospel is taken from St. John, telling us how Jesus taught

His Disciples to look for the coming of the Holy Ghost; if we turn to Acts

I, 12-26 we shall find how they fulfilled

Christ's instructions.

St. Luke tells us that they returned to Jerusalem, after the Ascension, with great joy in Christ's triumph.

They met in the upper chamber, where the Lord's Supper was instituted; Mary, the Mother of Jesus was with them and Our Lord's cousins, also the Holy women, and they all continued instant in prayer.

The place of Judas had to be filled by one who was familiar with the ministry of Christ, and after prayer

LAUNCHMEN'S STRIKE.

POSITION UNCHANGED.

THE TOWING SERVICE.

The growing importance of the towing service organised by the Launch Committee cannot be overlooked. Up to the present it has been responsible for the engagement of fifteen crews. They are being used in essential services. It is significant that several men who have been on strike—whether members of the Guild or not it is impossible to say—have returned to work. The towing service is not confined to these particular launches, but those privately manned by the interested companies lend their services as occasion permits. In this way a service is being built up which is daily proving itself more efficient in meeting the harbor requirements.

NOTHING DOING.

The general strike position remains unchanged this morning. Delegates have not yet put in an appearance from Canton, where they went to consult their colleagues.

FERRIES HUNG UP.

There was a hitch in the ferry services this morning which caused considerable inconvenience to residents of the peninsula; some of whom were not able to get to Hongkong side before about 10 o'clock.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail"]

Sir—Accustomed as we are to seeing the China Mail take up the cudgels on behalf of the public it is a matter for surprise that attention has not been drawn to a crying need experienced by those who are at the present time faced with the problem of finding their way across to Hongkong on the Kowloon ferries. It seems high time that some consideration was shown for the regular users of the ferries who find themselves every day engaged in a jostling crowd of Chinese who never come near the "Star" ferry in the piping times of industrial peace. Europeans, or at any rate European ladies, ought to be given first chance of getting a seat and the Chinese allowed on afterwards, if there is room. When the seamen's strike was on it was given out that if the ferry men came out only European would be catered for under any emergency arrangement. Personally, I think that plan should have been adopted in the present instance—at least it should be seen to that the Chinese are restricted to the third class section of the ferries.

Yours etc.,
PATRICK J. HALL.

LAWN BOWLS ASSOCIATION.

CHAMPIONSHIP ENTRIES.

INTERPORT INVITATION ACCEPTED.

The Lawn Bowls Association met at the office of the Government Marine Surveyor, last evening. The chief business of the meeting was the draw for the championship, and presentations to returning officials. Mr. W. Russell was in the chair.

The Secretary, Mr. Tacchi, announced that there were 33 entries for the championship.

The draw resulted as follows:—
Byes—H. Overy, F. Allen, and Sercombe.

1st Round:—Gow—Guy; Mackay—Grimmett; R. Duncan—R. J. Brown; Hunter—Whibley; Mair—Pattyjohn; Brown—Hill; McMurtrie—Gibson; McLeod—Chapman; W. Gerrard—Foulde; Ficker—Tacchi; Young—J. Russell—Ferguson; Wallace—Grant; Simpson—Farrell; Wotherspoon—Bass; Parkes—Batem; Harver—Omar; Pryce—Massey; Pile—McFarlane.

Byes—Roe, Atkinson, McLennan.

PRESENTATIONS.
Messrs. Dyer, Mody, and Harvey, who last year held the Offices of President, Vice-President and Chairman respectively, were then presented with gold medals.

The Chairman, in making the presentations, spoke in highly appreciative terms of the work the three recipients had done for the Club.

INTERPORT BOWLS.

The Secretary read a letter from the Shanghai Bowls Association inviting Hongkong to send up representatives for an Interport contest in September.

The meeting unanimously decided to accept the invitation.

This was followed by some discussion on rules, but nothing was done in this matter; except to authorise the Secretary to obtain rules governing league competitions at home.

The position of Taikeo which has two teams in the league gave rise to a lengthy discussion, the point at issue being whether reserves were interchangeable.

The meeting decided that the 24 players registered could only play for one team, but reserves could play for either team, but not for more than two matches consecutively.

OLD MAN ATTACKED.

WEST POINT SHOOTING AFFAIR.

On May 8, the China Mail reported a shooting affair near the Sailors' Home, West Point, when an elderly Chinese, described at the time as a retired merchant, was shot through the arm.

The case had its sequel in Magistrate Lindell's Court yesterday afternoon when a young Chinese was charged on four counts (1) illegal possession of a knife; (2) shooting at the complainant, Pun Choi with intent to kill; (3) causing grievous bodily harm to Pun Choi; and (4) possession of a dagger. The last two charges were preferred against the defendant as alternatives to the other two.

According to the case for the prosecution as outlined by Inspector Kent, the complainant, who it is known now to be a raitan worker, was attacked by three or four young men on the night of May 8. When the men accosted the complainant, one of them pointed a revolver at his head. The complainant knuckled up the man's hand, and the revolver went off wounding him in the arm. The complainant ran in the direction of Water Street calling out "save life" and the four men dispersed. Sergt. Fallon who happened to be approaching in a ricksha heard the revolver shot, and seeing the defendant running, stopped him. When he was searched he had a dagger in his possession. The complainant collapsed in Water Street and was carried to No. 7 Police Station from where he was taken to the hospital in an ambulance. At the hospital he identified the defendant as one of his assailants.

Dr. D. J. Valentine said the complainant had three wounds, an entrance wound, and an exit wound and a graze across the chest. All three could have been caused by one bullet. The wound in the arm would be permanent, and would affect the use of the man's arm.

The case was adjourned.

CAUSE OF DESPONDENCY.

Despondency is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. These tablets strengthen the digestion and move the bowels. For sale by all Chemists and Dispensaries.

HONGKONG TRADE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT.

The fortnightly Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce report states:—
Cotton piece goods and fancy cotton goods.—There is a certain amount of inquiry for Fancy Goods and small sales are reported of White Brocades, Coloured Lastings, and Lawns, &c. In most cases buyers' ideas of prices are hopelessly below home pantries. Greys and Whites are entirely neglected. Clearances are fairly satisfactory.

Cotton Yarn.—We are again faced with fresh disturbances at Wuchow which compelled some of the merchants there to close their shops and come down here for safety, in consequence of which a reaction has taken place and the volume of business has been on a limited scale. Prices have declined about $3 per bale and market closes with a quiet tendency.

Quotations are:—

OBITUARY.

FORMER QUEEN'S COLLEGE MASTER.

The Yellow Dragon, the magazine of Queen's College, record with regret the death in the antipodes of Mr. Benjamin James, B.A., Oxon., who for many years was closely identified with Queen's College. He came out in 1898, as an Assistant Master to Queen's College, but resigned in 1899, to take up an appointment in King's College, Bangkok, where he was tutor to the Siamese Princes.

In 1902, he returned to the Hongkong Education Department and was appointed Headmaster of Kowloon British School. For seven years he held this appointment, and for some time in addition to these duties, he held charge of Victoria British School. In December, 1910, Mr. James returned to Queen's College and was one of the senior assistant masters till 1914, when he was acting second master. In 1917 he went to Ellis Kadoorie School, where he remained until his retirement in 1918.

HAITAN IN TYPHOON.

SUPERSTRUCTURE DAMAGED.

The s.s. "Haitan" put into port this morning after receiving a bad battering from a typhoon. The vessel was on a voyage from Hoihow and Haihong and on Thursday ran into very severe weather. The wind rapidly got up to typhoon force, with an extremely heavy sea. A lifeboat was washed from the davits, accommodation ladders were smashed and other damage to the superstructure was done. In addition 200 pigs, part of the cargo of the ship were washed overboard.

CONSIGNEES' NOTICE.

FOR A LAME BACK.

When you have pain of lameness in the back, the best remedy is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Rub it on the affected part twice a day, and the pain will be relieved. It is a sure cure for all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, and other pains. For sale by all Chemists and Dispensaries.

"WHAT'S YOURS?"

Among drinkers Singapore is famous for its gin shing and Shanghai is remembered as the place that boasts the longest bar in the world—forty yards long. It is the pride and joy of the Shanghai Club. If there is one thing more than another that distinguishes Hongkong in the liquor line it must be the general preference for the Common or garden stengah. Connoisseurs who know a good brand when they taste one should be quick to appreciate the merits of W. and A. Gilbey's "Spey Royal" whisky which is being introduced to the notice of Hongkong by Messrs. A. S. Watson and Co. "Spey Royal" has been matured for over 10 years in Messrs. Gilbey's own exclusive bonded warehouses and has been specially stored in sherry casks. Experiments conducted on a sample bottle sent to the China Mail demonstrate that "Spey Royal" should have no difficulty in suggesting itself as the obvious answer to the popular "What's Yours?" query.

BANQUE INDUSTRIELLE

INQUIRY.

Paris, May 25th. The examining magistrates in the judicial inquiry into the affairs of the Banque Industrielle de Chine have decided to ask for annulment of Parliamentary immunity in the cases of Senators Andre Berthelot and Perbet and the Deputy M. Lammier.

Paris, May 25th. As a result of the judicial inquiry into the affairs of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, M. Perbet, an ex-director, will appear in the Police Court in connection with his deals in China.

The Board of Directors granted M. Perbet a bonus of 200,000 francs which was payable by the Peking agency. M. Perbet directed that this should be credited to him in the local currency, in accordance with his contract with the bank, he caused his salary to be reckoned in the same currency. This was in accord with the practice of the French Government in paying its officials in the Far East. The local quotation having risen M. Perbet made a handsome profit, but the judicial investigators are of the opinion that this was an abuse of confidence.

REVOLUTION IN SOFIA.

Sofia, May 25th. While there are rumours of a Communist revolution at Sofia, this is semi-officially denied. The Government has begun an anti-Communist campaign which its object is to maintain its independence from the Communists and Bolsheviks following the discovery of an alleged plot of Russian refugee officers.

The Government has ordered the expulsion of forty high Russian officers, including General Kozlov, the chief officer of the "Wrangels" troops in Bulgaria, who will be allowed to proceed to Constantinople.

All Russian refugees whose conduct is dangerous to law and order will be expelled and Russia in Bulgaria will be reprinted as soon as possible.

WEE WILLIE WINKIE.

"We Willie Winkie runs through the town,
Upstairs and downstairs in his night gown,
Rapping at the window, crying through the lock!"
"Are the children all a-bed? Past eight o'clock!"

This was the favourite song of two small boys and one day when they had sung it through several times Donald, the elder one, suddenly asked, "Why does Willie Winkie run through the town Mother? And why haven't I ever seen him?"

"Well it is like this," said his Mother, "You are always in bed and fast asleep when it is eight o'clock. Perhaps some of the bigger boys and girls have seen him. You had better ask them."

"Yes I will," said Donald thoughtfully. "But you have not told me yet why he runs through the town in his night gown. Why does he Mother?"

"In his night gown," piped little Graham, who always copied his big brother.

"I think," answered their mother, smiling at them both, "That Willie Winkie must have been a night watchman."

"What is that?" enquired Donald. "Years ago," his mother replied, "In every town there was a man who used to walk round the place at night calling out the hour."

"But what about Winkie?" Donald asked again.

"I think," went on his mother, lifting Graham on to her lap, "That he must have been a watchman for a very long time and that he was so fond of children that he had many friends amongst them. They used to peep out of the windows to see him coming by with his lantern on the dark winter nights and he would look up at their windows and laugh at them and call out 'Past eight o'clock. He liked them all to get into bed early because he knew that if they did not they would make everybody sad and themselves as well."

"Did he go on walking about the town like that until he was quite old?" asked Donald.

"Yes," replied his mother, "Until at last he grew so old that he could hardly walk and he knew that he would soon have to give up his work and stop at home and be looked after by his grandchildren."

"How many had he?" Donald put in again.

"Oh eleven or twelve," his mother laughingly said, "But they don't really come in the story, and when Donald exclaimed 'What a lot!' little Graham copied him as usual."

"And then?" Donald asked.

"And then," his mother continued, "A wonderful thing happened. A kind fairy who also was very fond of children thought what a pity it was that Willie Winkie should not be able to walk round the town and see them every night and so she changed him into a fairy watchman. She thought that he would like to be able to run about quickly again and she turned him into a little boy fairy."

"That is why he is called 'Wee Winkie' then?" enquired Donald.

"Yes, Wee Willie Winkie," agreed his mother. "If you look at pictures you will see that he is quite small and he wears a nightcap as well as a night gown. Of course only old people wear nightcaps but the fairy when she touched him with her magic wand forgot his nightcap and so that old part of him still remains. Wee Willie Winkie sleeps all day long and as soon as it is dark he jumps out of bed and as he runs about so fast he does not have to stop to get into any clothes but he always keeps warm. He starts running round the town, peeping at all his little friends and rapping."

"Why I heard something rapping at my window last night!" cried Donald. "Don't you remember Mother? You said that it must be a branch of the old tree!"

DRAGON BOAT RACES.

The fifth day of the fifth moon, the day fixed annually for the Dragon Boat Festival falls on Wednesday, May 31, this year.

The organisers of this annual sport have been busy making preparations, and a new item will be added to the programme this year. It will take the form of an invitation race for local rowing clubs. The clubs have been invited to enter gigs for a mile race, from the A.P.C. buoy to the Ming Yuen Gardens. The type of craft to be used in this race will be the ordinary 30 foot, six-oared gigs. A first prize will be offered. Entries for the race will be received by Mr. F. P. E. James at the P.W.D. up to 5 p.m., on Monday, May 23.

Lieut. Bailey, R.N., Warrant Officers McGrain and Jenkinson, and Mr. F. P. E. James and Mr. F. H. Dillon of the P.W.D., have agreed to co-operate with the Chinese Race Committee as judges and time-keepers.

"So I did," she admitted, "I was not thinking about Wee Willie Winkie just then. But now trot off boys or it really will be past eight o'clock and then I should have two tired and cross laddies to-morrow and Winkie would be very sad!"

PETER PAN.

THE GAME OF JINGLER.

Do you know how to play "Jingler, where are you?" One of the players is blindfolded with a handkerchief, another takes a handbell and is the Jingler.

The "blind" player goes round saying "Jingler where are you?" In answer the Jingler rings the bell.

The blind one follows the sound and the Jingler dodges away. If the blind one catches him they change places.

WATERING MY GARDEN.

This year because I'm growing big I have a garden where I dig And sow all kinds of seeds, And though I don't get many flowers I work in it for hours and hours And pull up all the weeds.

It isn't very large you know, I sow my seeds just in a row And have to squash them up, And some I had to put in twice, I found them—oh it wasn't nice All scratched up by my pup!

At morning time and after tea, I water them so carefully, Nurse says I make a mess, She says my shoes are always damp And I shall get a cold and cramp, It's true I must confess.

I fetch the water from the pump, It springs out with an awful jump Into my watering can, But all my seeds must have a drink, I don't think Nurse stop to think, It's 'noying for a man.

PETER PAN.

What wig can no barber make? An earwig.

BASE BALL.

THIS AFTERNOON'S GAME.

A slight change has been made in the scheduled arrangements for the initial Baseball game of the Season, which will take place at the Hongkong Football Club grounds at Happy Valley this afternoon. Instead of the Hongkongites playing the Kowloon aggregation, the available candidates have been divided into two camps, one of which has assumed the name of the "Giants" and will be captained by E.E. Brown, while the other known as the "Yankees," will be captained by E. J. Koch.

Interest in the American and Canadian communities is running high and there is sure to be a considerable amount of "rooting" for the adherents of the two teams. Inasmuch as this will be the first opportunity this season for the "rooters" to see their old favourites as well as the new men in action, it is expected that a large crowd will turn out.

During the past week, the new grandstand capable of holding from 500 to 1000 people has been completed and the grounds have been smoothed out considerably. New equipment has been purchased for the team and although the new suits which have been ordered will not be available in time, both sides should take the appearance of real ball teams on the field.

Doctor Urquhart will umpire balls and strikes and Doctor Daugherty who is temporarily out of the game owing to an injured wrist, will call decisions on the bases.

The division of the two teams together with their probable line ups are as follows:—

GIANTS.

Scott Catcher
Brown Pitcher
Downick Shortstop
Townsend First Base
L. Nelson Second Base
Bradford Third Base
Walsh Left Field
Findlay Centre Field
Wahlman Right Field
Beyer, A. W. Nelson reserves.

YANKEES.

Koch Catcher
Higgins Pitcher
Dome Shortstop
Hodgkin First Base
Brook Second Base
Church Third Base
Benson Left Field
O'Connor Centre field
Luby Right field
Armstrong, Burdin, reserves.

The game will be called promptly at 4 o'clock. Admission will be free.

ARMED ROBBERIES AGAIN.

Robbers raided a house in Park Street at 8.15 last night and made a haul of jewellery worth $278. A Chinese married woman was sitting in the front part of the house, on the ground floor, when suddenly the street door which was not locked, was pushed open and five men rushed in. She called out whereupon one of the men pointed a dagger at her and ordered her to keep quiet. Her husband's concubine who rushed out from an inner room to see what was the matter, was promptly covered with a revolver by one of the other men. The robbers relieved the mistress of a pair of gold bangles and a pair of gold mounted rattan bangles. From the concubine they took another pair of gold mounted bangles. Not satisfied with their haul, the robbers took the mistress' keys and opening up several boxes, took several gold rings, a pair of gold bangles and $100 in notes which were contained in a white metal jewel box, which they also carried away. All five men made good their escape.

An intriguing romance is revealed in the disappearance from a Paris sanatorium of Mme. Jacques Lebaudy, acquitted slayer of her husband, "Emperor of the Sahara," shot to death at their Westbury, N. Y., home in 1919, and her daughter, Jacqueline. Roger Sudreau, detective, said to have married Jacqueline so that she might inherit her father's fortune, has police searching for the two women. Americans are remarkably good to children. Adoption is very common, and works well. A Press discussion lately put this Chicago lady in the news.

Uncle Sam's newest giant aircraft is nearing completion at New Haven, Conn. As shown above, the Craft is an exact replica of the Zodiac, purchased by this Government from France. This ship, the largest non-rigid air giant ever constructed in America, is 260 feet long, 50 feet high and 38 feet wide. Its speed will be 60 miles per hour inflated with 328,000 cubic feet of helium or hydrogen, and it will carry a crew of 25 men.

These three persons, M. G. Pierson, Miss Etta Barnett and Rudolf Wolf (left to right) are listening to music from a broadcasting station by means of the aerial-less radio telephone. By holding his finger on one of the terminals of the receiving set, one receives the music through his body. From him it passes to the others through joined hands. The more persons in one of these human circuits the more distinctly the sound is heard, declares Mr. Wolf, of New York, the inventor.

Pegs On Corns
Between Toes

The Great Corn Loosener of the Age.
Never Fails. Painless.

A corn mashed, expressed and crushed, all day long, in between two toes. You can try it at the desperate way and try to dig it out and fail. Or

Two Drops of "Gels-it"—That's All!
You can try the sensible, painless, painless, easy way and use "Gels-it".
It is easy for you with "Gels-it" to remove corns in places difficult to reach. "Gels-it" is a liquid—a wonderful painless formula—it has never been successfully imitated. It settles on the corn, and dries immediately. Instead of digging out the corn, you peel it out painless.
There is no sticky plaster that does not remain in position, no saws that irritate or rub the corn, no sharp corns with the little glass rod it does not hurt the true flesh. Try it, walk comfortably and smile! It is a blessing never fails.

"Gels-it" the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at all chemists and stores. Mfg. by E. Lawrence &
